FROM AFRICA TO LATIN AMERICA AND BACK:
LITERATURE, INSTITUTIONS, AND BEST PRACTICES

Join us for a conversation about bridging African and Latin American literary studies. Prominent and emerging scholars share their findings and reflect on the frameworks that sustain them.

Featuring
Dorothy E. Mosby (Dean of Faculty, Mount Holyoke College)
Gerard Aching (Professor, Cornell University)
Magali Armillas-Tiseyra (Associate Professor, Pennsylvania State University)
Leonardo Velloso-Lyons (Ph.D. Candidate, Stanford University)

March 15, 2021 | 12:00 - 1:30pm
RSVP for the Zoom link.