

Mariana de Heredia

Gabriel Max Strasse 15
Berlin, Germany
mheredia@stanford.edu

EDUCATION

- PhD, Iberian and Latin American Cultures* (2013-2018)
Stanford University, Palo Alto, CA
- MA, Latin American Studies* (2011-2012)
Stanford University, Palo Alto, CA
Gran Mariscal de Ayacucho Graduate Fellowship
- BA, International Relations* (2005-2010)
Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México, Mexico City

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Stanford University Language Center* (2014- 2015)
- Spanish Instructor
 - Spanlang 1, Spanlang 2, Spanlang 3
- Department of Literatures, Cultures and Languages* (2014-2016)
Stanford University
- Sophomore College
 - Co-instructor for the course “Twentieth-Century Latin American Cinema” in the Spanish Immersion intensive program
- Foro Consultivo Científico y Tecnológico A.C.* (2012-2013)
- Advisory Council Coordinator
 - Publishing liaison and coordination, project management
 - Development of academic projects
- The Mexican Embassy in Washington DC* (2012)
- Internship with the Chief Political Consultant to the Ambassador
 - Speech editing and translation, drafting of talking points
 - Editing of monthly newsletter

- Senior Editor of Social Media Communications
 - Analysis, development and strategic content creation for Mexico City Government's social media accounts

COURSES, CONFERENCES AND GRANTS

Doctoral Dissertation Grant (2017-2018)
University of Southern California

- Center for Public Diplomacy at the Annenberg School 2017-2018 Doctoral Dissertation Grant

Iberian and Latin American Cultures (2013- 2014)
Stanford University

- Student organizer of “Ellas Filman el Siglo XXI”, a three day conference that brought together Mexican female film directors/script writers, film critics, students and faculty

PUBLICATIONS

Co-Director and Main Editor of the documentary Innovation for development: The voices of GLOBELICS

- Fifty-minute documentary film based on interviews with scholars at the annual GLOBELICS international conference

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Languages: Fluent in Spanish, English, and Portuguese. Intermediate in German and Italian

Other interests: Ashtanga Yoga